

The Glorious Pickle Times

By Ellie Nowlin | Volume 3 | March 19th, 2020

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

- Mo Willems Lunch Doodle at noon on YouTube, Episode 3
- Rachel Wyatt's Science Made Simple
- Cincinnati Zoo animal exhibit at 2:00 pm on Facebook live
- Georgia Aquarium Live Underwater Webcam
- Virtual Field Trips at <https://tinyurl.com/uxey6xb>

REVIEW

Show Series: Brain Games
Brain Games is an educational TV show about your brain and how it works. You will be blown away. Can be found on National Geographic, Disney+, and Netflix. Seasons 6+ not recommended.

The Daily Bean
Featured drawing series

THE DAILY INTERVIEW

Mike Nowlin

One of Mike Nowlin's favorite things to do is get in the kitchen, fire up the stove, and cook a delicious and healthy meal. "I love to cook because it's relaxing," he says when asked why. "Plus I'm a big foodie and cooking really allows you to try all different kinds of food." Those of you who have tried his extraordinary cuisine will be amazed to learn he taught himself how to cook. When he was learning, he read lots of cookbooks and watched the cooking channel every time he could. When asked his favorite thing to cook, he didn't hesitate before saying, "Risotto. It's one of my favorite things to eat, and if you do it right it's really fun to see it all come together." Most people think risotto is hard to cook, Mike explains, but it's actually pretty simple. "I started really cooking at age 25. I cooked a few things in college, but mostly they were fatty, bad-for-you food like chicken tenders in macaroni." A very interesting thing about Mike's cooking in the Nowlin household is that he tries to eat healthy, so he'll have 2 or 3 versions of the same meal cooking at once. Take last night's dinner, for example. Everyone had coconut curry rice, but Erika, Kass, and Ellie had buttery brown rice while Mike had a cauliflower version. "Which is still good!" he maintains.

DAD JOKE OF THE DAY

What did the dad buffalo say to the baby buffalo when the baby buffalo went to school?

Bye, son.
(Bison)

Fire Hazard by Emily and Alex Lejeune

