TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

-Today's LEGO Challenge, Day 3:
Your parents want to build a new house and they want you to build it.

-Today is the first day we're home, not in Spring Break. AISD sent out an email with lessons for all AISD students from PreK-12th Grade. If you have this email, we recommend setting a schedule and doing this online schooling.

-Today, KVUE weatherman is doing a live meteorology lesson on FaceBook live at Noon- Albert's Weather Classroom!

TGPT HOLIDAY: Read For An Hour Day

REVIEW

Movie: Wonder

Based on the book Wonder by RJ Palacio (also great!), Wonder is about 5th-grade Auggie Pullman, a boy with extreme facial abnormalities, starting real school for the first time ever. Set in a few different points of view, like that of Auggie, his sister Via, and their friends.

THE DAILY INTERVIEW

Kaye Wilson

3½ years ago, Kaye Wilson was on a work trip at the Omni Hotel in Corpus Christi. They were having a Fun Run one morning, and a jet-black puppy wandered up to them without a collar. "He was so sweet and friendly and young," says Kaye on the subject. When she asked police helping with the conference about contacting the Gulf Coast Humane Society, they told her their policies regarding stray dogs. Kaye didn't agree with the policies, so she called her husband about bringing the dog home. His answer was an immediate yes. The staff of the Omni immediately took the puppy in until Kaye could bring him home. One major problem - the puppy needed a name! "I texted all the kids and grandkids, asking for name suggestions," she says. There were some good ones for sure, but the best one came, not from a recommendation or sudden thought, but from a State Farm Commercial. Jake!

Jake has been living with the Wilsons for three and a half years now. He was diagnosed as deaf and now knows some Wilson-ified sign language. He can open doors, but not quite close them. He loves playing ball and tearing up cardboard boxes and paper bags. He eats dry kibble and homemade (vet-approved!) dog food. Overall, he is a healthy and happy rescue dog living with a kind family who loves him.

DAD JOKE OF THE DAY

What sound does a witch's car make?

Broom broom.

Hello There, Fellow Human by Emily LeJeune

Hello there, fellow human.

I don't know who you are,

But listen to me closely,

Whether you're near or very far.

I think you look quite nice today,

Such beauty, such physique.

And such an inspiring person you are,

The wonderful words you speak.

Look at yourself in a mirror today,

And smile, look at you!

You're still here, so wonderfully made,

Fellow human, love you, I do.
